

M.A. Graduation Ceremony M.A. in Education (Education Sciences)

01 February 2014

The graduation ceremony of the joint M.A. “M.A. in Education (Education Sciences)” of ASPETE, GR, and Roehampton University, UK, was held at the Town Hal of Amaroussion in Athens on February 01, 2014, in the presence of the Mayor of Amaroussion Mr Giorgos Patoulis.

of our country, therefore they should have our full support.

In his opening address, the Mayor of Amaroussion Mr Giorgos Patoulis welcomed and congratulated the successful graduates and their parents, stating that young people are the future

Addresses were also made by the representatives of the cooperating Institutions, Prof. Emeritus John Chrysoulakis, President of ASPETE, Prof. Michael Day, Director of the School of Education at Roehampton University, and Prof. Evanthia Makri-Botsari and Dr. Richard Race, Programme Conveners of ASPETE and Roehampton University, respectively. All of the above speakers thanked the Mayor and the Municipality of Amaroussion for their warm hospitality, and congratulated the M.A. graduates on their success, urging them to keep working towards their personal and professional development.